Course Title

Classical Chinese B

Lecturer

Prof. Ping Zhang

Semester

2

Course requirements

1. Active participation: missing three lessons without proper reason (miluim or sickness) means fail.
2. Homework: listen to audio recording of the week's lesson in textbook, read repeatedly until you can read it fluently, record your one reading in browser-supported format (mp3, m4a) and upload it to homework assignment of the relevant week. Making more than 5 mistakes in your reading invalidates your submission and you will be asked to make another submission, until your reading meets our requirements (less than 5 mistakes).
3. Weekly quiz: listen to the recording of the week's text for reciting, read repeatedly until you can recite it, record one reciting and upload it to the week's assignment of quiz (in browser supported format, mp3, m4a). More than 8 mistakes means failing in quiz, and you have one chance of making another submission. Each week one student will be chosen to recite in front of the class, the requirements are the same as the online submission.
4. final written exam at home: Read the selected text on the exam sheet, answer ten questions, and translate the text into English or Hebrew, with academic quality commentaries on the problems of the text.

Final grade components

Homework (25%), Weekly quiz (25%), final written exam (50%)
