

Full Syllabus

Course Title

Environmental Studies Colloquium

Lecturer

Dr. Michal Gruntman

Semester

A

Course requirements

Mandatory attendance* in at least 8 sessions out of the 11.

*(Special populations such as: soldiers in reserve duty, evacuees, parents of children with a spouse in reserve duty, etc. could ask the lecturer's approval to attend in zoom).

Course schedule

Class Date	Subject and Requirements (assignments, reading materials, tasks, etc.)
01.01.24	Orli Ronen, Tel Aviv University: Presenting the Porter Internship Program
08.01.24	Iftach Nachman, Tel Aviv University: An embryonic organoid approach to cultivate meat
15.01.24	Mrinal Kashyap, Tel Aviv University: Algal biomass processing for protein extraction using pulsed electric fields
22.01.24	Merav Lebel, Tel Aviv University: How does Israel's Nature and Parks Authority conserve plants?
29.01.24	Nadav Gofer, Green Step: Education for sustainability and a sustainable community in the municipal space
05.02.24	Sarit Agami, The Hebrew University: Atmospheric conditions leading to buildup of benzene concentrations in urban areas in Israel
12.02.24	Roi Dor, The Open University: Insights from studying one of the worst avian invaders in the world
19.02.24	Tali Hatuka, Tel Aviv University: New Industrial Urbanism
26.02.24	TBA
04.03.24	Ofir Levy, Tel Aviv University: How climate change is affecting ecological systems
11.03.24	TBA